Governor Polis announced that Clear Creek County, along with all other counties in Colorado currently operating under Level Red: Severe Risk, will be allowed to move back into the less restrictive Level Orange: High Risk starting today. Per CDPHE, restaurants in Clear Creek County have been operating under Level Orange since December 21st.

Level Orange: High Risk restrictions include:

- Last call for alcohol is moved from 8pm to 10 pm. Bars remain closed.
- Gyms may operate at 25% capacity or up to 25 people indoors.
- Personal gatherings of up to 10 people (from no more than two households) will be allowed.
- Indoor events are permitted with a capacity of 25% or 50 people with 6 feet distancing.
- Outdoor events are permitted with a capacity of 25% or 75 people with 6 feet distancing.
- Offices may operate at 25% capacity.

We appreciate all of the steps that members of our community have taken to help slow the spread of COVID-19. As Clear Creek County continues to stay the course, please remember to avoid social gatherings with those not in your immediate household; and when in public, wear a mask, maintain 6 feet physical distance, and practice good hygiene.
