

For Immediate Release

Clear Creek County Sheriff Rick Albers Creates Citizen Advisory Board

Board empowered to evaluate and recommend changes to the policies and procedures of the Clear Creek County Sheriff's Office

Georgetown, CO (November 3, 2022) – Today, Clear Creek County Sheriff Rick Albers is proud to announce the creation of a Citizen Advisory Board. The Board, comprised of Clear Creek County residents, encompasses a group of people with diverse backgrounds and experiences, reflecting the larger community. The Sheriff, who will meet with the Board monthly, is empowering the members with wide latitude to examine the policies and procedures of the CCSO. Over the coming months and years, the Board will work with the Sheriff to develop recommendations based on national best practices.

"We recognize that community trust is the cornerstone of our ability to serve our community," said Clear Creek County Sheriff Rick Albers. "Incorporating community members from a broad background helps bring new insight into how we can better serve Clear Creek County, and I am deeply thankful for the members who agreed to serve in this challenging role. Creating the Board is another step we can take to build stronger bonds with our community and be a more responsive agency."

The newly selected Board Members are:

Nathan Buseck, Chief of the Idaho Springs Police Department

Albert Raymond Frei Jr., a long-time Clear Creek County resident and business owner

Carrie A. Lindberg, MA, LPC, who is a mental healthcare provider experienced in working with law enforcement

Tim Mauck, former Clear Creek County Commissioner with a 20-year history of government service

Danny L. Tomlinson, a former United States Navy officer, business owner, and active participant in many local clubs and fraternal societies

Latricia Troia, who is currently a county employee and victim advocate

The Board met for the first time yesterday. Over the coming weeks, the Sheriff's Office will profile each member of the Board in-depth, create opportunities for public feedback, and present the Board's findings and recommendations for community review.

-END-