

Rutherford Trail

Site 5:

The Leavenworth Branch Road was constructed in 1874 as a Y off of the earlier Georgetown Chicago Lake Road. People traveling to the mines in Upper Silver Dale or East Argentine (the area around today's Waldorf) would turn off at this point.